Description

This volume aims to provide a first port-of-call resource for students and church leaders who wish to be introduced to the Gospels and their first-century contexts. Its conversational tone and wealth of resources for further study make it ideal for anyone wishing to immerse themselves in these fascinating books of the Bible and discover the Jesus revealed in their pages. Volume 1: Mark is the first of four planned volumes that will cover all four Gospels and provide an introduction to their socio-cultural and historical contexts.

Rev. Dr. Dan Lowery (PhD, University of Bristol)

Dan is the President of Pillar Seminary and also an Associate Professor of New Testament there. He and his family make their home in the Dallas–Fort Worth Metroplex, where for many recent years, Dan also served as the senior pastor of Lakeview Community Church. He has authored articles for Lexham Bible Dictionary and Lexham Theological Wordbook (Lexham Press) and a monograph in the Bulletin for Biblical Research Supplement Series (Eisenbrauns). Dan is an Associate Fellow at the Kirby Laing Centre for Public Theology, where he also serves on the Committee for the Scripture Collective’s “Scripture and University Seminar” (SAUS).
